Housing Inspection Contract

This statement is to notify all campus residents at Virginia University of Lynchburg of the order of consequences that will occur should residents fail any room inspection. These charges will be enforced for failure to meet and/or comply with the expectations required to pass room inspections. The persons responsible for imposing said consequences upon campus residents include the Director of Housing, Residential Assistants, and/or other associates of the Office of Student Affairs. Below is the list of charges and disciplinary actions given to residents who do not meet the expectations to pass room inspections.

1st Offense: Warning (with 24 hours to correct the issue for re-inspection)

2nd Offense: Charged a fine amount & 24 hour re-inspection

3rd Offense: Charged double the amount from 2nd offense & 24 hour re-inspection

4th Offense: Expulsion from campus housing for remainder of the semester

 Please note that expulsion from Campus housing for an academic semester/year may hinder the student from the privilege of campus housing indefinitely. **
